Article IV - Committees

Section 1 Standing Committees

The Vice-President shall appoint the necessary standing committees and the chairpersons of those committees. Standing Committees shall be as follows:

Scholarship Committee -This committee will evaluate each request for a waiver/reduction of registration fees. Committee members should consist of the Vice President and Treasurer. See Article VIII (b) for requirements for a waiver of enrollment fees.

Section 2 Special Committees

The Executive Board may appoint special committees from time-to-time as deemed necessary and appropriate to further the interests of the Association. Such committees shall be dismissed at the conclusion of their purpose unless extended by the Vice President.

Article V - Meetings of the Association

Section 1

There shall be regular meetings of the Executive Board Officers each month, which shall be held as required at a location designated by the President for the purpose of transacting such business as may be properly brought before the meeting. There shall be a meeting of all elected Board Members whenever the President deems necessary. At each board meeting all Board Members shall give a report of their duties performed and status of pending items.

Section 2

The President may call special meetings of the Executive Board Officers and/or Board Members. The prime consideration in such instances will be whether timely notification to the Board can be effected before the meeting.

Section 3

There may be an annual meeting of the general membership before the end of the calendar year and within a reasonable time after the conclusion of the football and cheer season, including any regional competitions but not state or national competitions. This will be in lieu of the Executive Board Officers meeting for that month and have the purpose of holding an election of Executive Board Officers and Board Members for the following season.

Section 4

To have a Quorum: The organization must have at least six (6) of the Executive Officers, (see Article III, Section 1) and seven (7) of the Board Members, other than the President, present at the meeting.

Section 5

Tahoma Bears Junior Football and Cheer will operate on a calendar year January to December.

Section 6

Any action which could be taken at a meeting of the members may be taken without a meeting if oral consent setting forth the action so taken is agreed upon by all members entitled to vote with respect to the subject matter thereof. This shall include an email vote so long as it is agreed upon by the voting members. Any such consent shall be inserted in the minute book as if it were the minutes of a meeting of the members.

Section 7

If any of the Executive Board Officers feels there may be a conflict between Executive Board Officers regarding a coach, an election by the remaining Executive Board Officers will take place to decide whether that Executive Board Officer should remain in attendance during a discussion of the particular situation at issue.

Article VI - Standing Rules

Section 1

Since the Association professes high moral standards and good sportsmanship as sound personal characteristics essential to proper development of the youth of our community, the following standing rules are prescribed:

- a. Any coach or member of this Association, who uses profanity, vulgar, obscene or abusive language in the presence of any member of the Association will be subject to disciplinary actions.
- b. Any coach or member of the Association who uses physical force on a youth of the Association shall be subject to immediate dismissal by the Athletic Director or Cheer Director with the approval of the President. (Example: grabbing of head gear, overzealous example of football techniques, etc.).
- c. Parents shall not interfere with the coaches or coaching activity, unless said parent is a member of the accepted and trained staff. The Athletic Director shall be contacted concerning all coaching matters regarding football; the Cheer Director shall be contacted concerning all coaching matters regarding cheer.
- d. The coaching staff and Elected Board will remain diverse, i.e., coaches cannot hold elected office of appointments and remain on the coaching staff unless approved by the Executive Board. Elected or appointed Officers and Board Members will not interfere with the coaching efforts, except in the performance of a designated responsibility.
- e. Any board member, coach, or parent owing the Association or subsidiary of the Association any monies from registration, fundraisers, equipment, uniforms, etc., after December 10 for football and end of extended season for Cheer of that year, is barred from running for any board position or coaching/ assistant position for one year, and the debt must be paid before the next season begins.
- f. Coaches will be in charge of selecting a team parent from their team roster prior to the start of practice and reporting the person to the parent coordinator(s) on the board (Vice President/Assistant Cheer Director).
- g. Rules and guidelines for cheerleaders, football players, coaches, and parents will be voted on by the Board for approval.
- h. The Association of Tahoma Bears Junior Football and Cheer will retain the mascot the Bears and the official colors of royal blue, gold and silver (with accents of white; and black lettering if necessary), for all cheerleader and football uniforms and will maintain these colors and mascot for any other Tahoma Bears Junior Football and Cheer Association items and events.
- i. All head coaches must have attained the age of 18 years or older in order to hold a Head Coach position with Tahoma Bears Junior Football and Cheer.

Section 2

A. The Executive Board shall have the authority to suspend, discharge or otherwise discipline any player, coach, league officer or other person whose conduct is in violation of the rules and regulations of junior football, these Bylaws, and/or is considered to be detrimental to the best interest of the Association.

1. Persons subject to such discipline shall have the right to a hearing before the Executive Board before such discipline is imposed.
2. In the event the discipline procedures involve a player under the age of 18, that person's parents or guardians shall be invited to attend the hearing with the person concerned.

B. Persons, youth or adults, who refuse to comply with the rules of League or the Association, may be considered for disciplinary action.

C. Executive Board may impose one of the following penalties, which, in their opinion, seems to match the severity of the offense:

1. WARNING: The offending person is to be advised in writing of the offense and further advised that repetition of the offense will result in more severe penalties.
2. SUSPENSION: The offending person is to be advised in writing that s/he has been suspended from all activities for a specific number of games or days, by the Executive Board.
3. DISMISSAL: The offending person is to be advised in writing that s/he has been barred from present and future participation in the Association permanently or for a specific number of years by the Executive Board.

Article VII - Refunds

Section 1

The refund policy is defined on the website and at the time of registration.

- a. If a parent elects to withdraw their child from the program prior to the first day of practice a full refund-minus the stated refund policy provided all equipment has been returned to TBJFC.
- b. Refunds will only be done when the refund form is filled out and signed by both the Equipment Manager and Treasurer. Refunds may take up to ten (10) working days to process (not following the refund policy will only delay the refund).
- c. Under special circumstances the Executive Board of Directors can elect to review individual refund requests on a per case basis.

*Definition of first practice: First practice is the scheduled first practice for all players as dictated by the Board for that year. First practice does not mean the first practice attended by a child.

Article VIII - Registration Fees

- a. Registration fees will be set by the Executive Board of TBJFC each season.
- b. Scholarships. If a child's family is unable to pay the registration fees, the family is encouraged to fill out an application form for a scholarship. A written agreement will outline the responsibilities of the parent/guardian toward the TBJFC after receipt of the Scholarship. Where financial need is established and where the parents/guardians are capable, the parents/guardians are expected to contribute time and labor outlined in the scholarship award letter. All Scholarships shall be reviewed by the Scholarship Committee prior to June 1 of each season. No special consideration is to be given by the Scholarship Committee based on friendship or family relationship. All applications are to be evaluated solely on the basis of financial need.
- c. Failure of a scholarship athlete's family to meet the conditions outlined in the scholarship letter will result in that athlete being ineligible for future TBJFC scholarships unless good cause established by vote of the Executive Board and documented in minutes.

Article IX - Teams and Coaches Ages of TBJFC Participants

Section 1

For football, The TBJFC shall follow the League age and weight guidelines. Where the League allows rostering by age range or scholastic grade, TBJFC shall default to rostering football players by grade unless approved in consensus by the Athletic Director and Assistant Athletic Director. There is no weight restriction for cheer.

Section 2

Coaches and Assistant Coaches duties and responsibilities are as follows:

- a. Players in these age groups are at a very impressionable age, and the influence of a coach can be a strong force for good, if the adult leaders realize and take advantage of their opportunities for constructive leadership.
- b. Perhaps the coach's greatest opportunity comes in the development of positive attitudes. The coach's attitudes will be reflected by a majority of their players, so it is important that the coaches understand and instruct their players that the relationship with the referees, other coaches, and other players should be of a friendly nature.
- c. It is important for the players to recognize the role that the referees play. Coaches teach respect for law and order when they teach their players to respect the referees and their roles in the game. We must recognize that the best and most experienced referees make mistakes, just as players make errors and coaches make poor judgment calls on occasion.
- d. Remember that it is against the rules and spirit of TBJFC for coaches or players to criticize other players, but should be taught to encourage them instead. Failure to comply may result in disciplinary action.
- e. The dedicated leader explores avenues of doing the job better, and grows through self-education. He or she learns that the privilege of building better individuals through football and cheer, brings a personal satisfaction far greater than the minor inconveniences, which he or she encounters, while fulfilling this important work.
- f. Football coaches are required to attend all coaches' meetings set up by the Athletic Director. Cheer coaches are required to attend all coaches' meetings set up by the Cheer Director. All coaches may be required to attend other meetings that are set up for our league.
- g. The use of tobacco or alcohol is prohibited by adult leaders on the play field and in the stands.
- h. Play time policies, guidelines and requirements shall be reviewed and set each season by the Executive Board. The Athletic Director is responsible for monitoring the coaching staff and obtaining their agreements as outlined in the code of conduct.

Article X - Equipment, Uniforms and Insurance

Section 1

Equipment and Uniforms

- a. The Equipment Manager shall issue all uniforms, supplies and equipment for football; The Cheer Director and Assistant Cheer Director shall issue all uniforms, supplies and equipment for cheer.
- b. All teams will be provided with equipment as it is available.
- c. All teams will get complete uniforms. Football includes helmet, shoulder pads, hip pads, thigh pads, game pants/jersey and practice pants/jersey. Cheer includes skirt, shell, crop, briefs.
- d. All equipment gear and uniforms are the property of the Association, except the one practice jersey and socks for football and crop, & briefs for cheer that is for each player to keep.
- e. Parents or guardians will write a check to the TBJFC for an amount set by the Executive Board at the beginning of each season. The check will be held until the end of the season. If the equipment is not returned or returned in an unreasonable condition, the check will be cashed by the Association as an equipment fee. Parents not returning equipment could be subject to suspension the following year at the discretion of the Executive Board.

- f. Forfeiture of equipment deposit will be assessed to the parent or guardian that returns equipment or uniforms in dirty or damaged condition.

Section 2

Insurance

The League will provide secondary insurance.

Article XI - Amending the Bylaws

Section 1

The process for amending the currently adopted Bylaws of the Association are:
